Provided that where such a complaint cannot be made in writing, the Presiding Officer or any Member of SICC shall render all reasonable assistance to the aggrieved for making a complaint in writing.

Where the aggrieved employee is unable to make a complaint on account of their physical or mental incapacity or death or otherwise, (a) legal heir or friend; or (b) co-worker; or (c) an officer of the National Commission for Women or State Women's Commission; or (d) any person who has knowledge of the incident, with a written consent of the aggrieved women; may make a complaint.

The SICC shall make an inquiry into the complaint in accordance with the principles of natural justice.

The Complainant or person authorized on their behalf as per the above provision shall make a complaint to the SICC along with supporting documents and names and addresses of witnesses.

On receipt of such a complaint, SICC shall provide a copy of such complaint along with supporting documents to the Respondent within 7 working days.

The Respondent shall file a reply to the complaint along with their list of documents, and names and addresses of witnesses, within a period not exceeding ten working days from the date of receipt of the documents from SICC.

SICC shall investigate the complaint in detail by giving reasonable opportunities for both the parties. For the purpose of making an inquiry, under this policy, SICC has the power of a civil court, vested in it, in respect of:

- a. Summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him under oath;
- b. Requiring discovery and production of documents;
- c. Any other prescribed matter.

During the inquiry process, the Complainant and the Respondent shall refrain from any form of threat, intimidation, or influencing of Witnesses.

The Committee shall ensure confidentiality during the inquiry process and will ensure that sufficient care is taken to avoid any retaliation against the witnesses.

SICC shall have the right to terminate the inquiry or give an ex-parte decision on the complaint if the Respondent or complainant remains absent for 3 consecutive hearings, without sufficient cause, provided that such termination or ex-parte order may not be passed without giving notice in writing, 15 days in advance, to the party concerned.

If the allegation against the Respondent has not been proved, the Committee may recommend not to take any action in the matter.

If the SICC arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the Respondent has been proved, it shall recommend to the Employer to consider sexual harassment as misconduct and take action in accordance with the provisions of the Service Rules of the Company.

Such action shall be taken within 60 days of the receipt of the report.

FALSE ALLEGATIONS:

The complaint of sexual harassment made by any employee shall be taken up with the utmost seriousness by the Company. However, there shall be zero tolerance for any false accusation.

On inquiry, if the SICC comes to a conclusion that the allegation was made with malicious intent or the aggrieved person or any other person making the complaint on behalf of the aggrieved person produced false or forged or misleading documents to prove his/her case, the SICC may recommend taking action against the person who made the complaint as per Service Rules. In such a case, malicious intent has to be established after an enquiry in accordance with the procedure prescribed, before any action is recommended. A mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof would not attract action as provided herein. A similar recommendation for taking action would be recommended against any witness whom the SICC concludes that he/she has given false evidence or produced forged or misleading documents.

The above provision is not to discourage employees from coming forward with complaints. NSIL recognizes and expects certain claims may be difficult to prove or support, or may not in fact be found to raise to the level of seriousness deemed necessary to conclude as Sexual Harassment. Complaints falling under the above shall not be considered to be false accusations.
